Appendix B – Template website providers

The GFC CMLS has worked to provide a low-cost means for Participants and Subscribers to have an IDX web presence.

Matrix IDX

The GFC CMLS provides all Participants and Subscribers with a free personal Matrix IDX program, which can be quickly and easily added to any member's website. Complete information about Matrix IDX can be found at:

Authorized Third-Party "Template" Providers

The following is a list of just a few companies that currently provide GFC CMLS members with inexpensive "template" websites. Such sites provide "search engines" and "user interfaces" that are similar from broker to broker, but with unique broker branding.

- Constellation Web Services – www.constellationws.com

- Homes.com – www.homes.com

- IDX Broker – www.idxbroker.com

- iHomeFinder – www.ihomefinder.com

- MarketLeader – www.marketleader.com

- Real Estate Webmasters – www.realestatewebmasters.com

- Web Agent Solutions – www.webagentsolutions.com

- Wolfnet Technologies, Inc. – www.wolfnet.com

This information may not be an up-to-date and is NOT a complete list; The GFC CMLS does not receive any fees under these relationships.

Your best means of getting the best deal is to ask the questions in Section 6.5 above before signing any contract with a website designer.
